Tameside Action for Social Communication and Autism

TASCA is a support group for families with children with autism and social communication difficulties living within the Tameside and Glossop area. It has a wide range of resources, should that be just a leaflet, a book, or the help of a professional from either the Health Service or from Tameside Council should you need it.

TASCA also provides the opportunity for children and their siblings to partake in leisure activities and day trips during the school holidays, specifically organised just for them and their families.

FACT - Families of Autistic Children Together

Fact Saturday club is offering a service to parents for children diagnosed with ASD and communication difficulties, the play session is to give families some respite and for the children to meet other children in a safe and relaxed environment, supported by staff that are qualified and have experience working and supporting children with additional needs, these play sessions are run on a rota service as we provide a one to one service for each child.

The session is 10am to 1pm and costs £3 a head, this includes a snack and juice, if any families are interested in this play session they will need to contact Debbie Mcgeoch (our Team Manager) or Tracy Whittle (Trustee and Founder of Fact.)

We also have an evening play session which is held at 'Slide and seek' play centre in Hyde, this is run every 2nd of the month, 6.15 to 8pm also supported by volunteers and staff, in a private environment. It is £1.50 per child, and siblings are very welcome. Any enquiries for this session please phone Tracy Whittle on 07837584424 or visit our website here.

Please e-mail any queries to info@factautism.org.uk
